Casey Ayres (b. 1987) is a multi-disciplinary artist living in Perth, Western Australia. Ayres works in photography, video, painting and sculpture. His semi autobiographical works dissect the composition and map the trajectory of contemporary masculinity and identity traversing both cultural and sub cultural narratives.

Ayres received a first class honours degree from Curtin University. He has exhibited locally, nationally and internationally. His works belong to several private collections as well as Deutsche Bank and the University of Western Australia.
